BISFED 2016 WORLD OPEN – PÓVOA DE VARZIM

That's right, Póvoa de Varzim, fondly known as the 'capital of Boccia', will welcome, once again, the BISFed 2016 World Open.

Although this competition won't qualify for Rio 2016, it is, undoubtedly, one of the last opportunities for athletes and nations to perfect their gaming strategies and prepare themselves for the Paralympic challenge with some of boccia's finest athletes.

It will also provide you with valuable Ranking Points for the 2018 BISFed World Championships, so you can't miss it.

*We are waiting for you!
More details will be announced soon.*
